"Sharing Christ, Changing Lives"

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2023 – NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

AS WE GATHER

God mightily delivered Israel to the Promised Land, but the Israelites were also indicted for their profound rebellion. Resolute confidence as God's elect is laid to waste in the wake of overwhelming sin. Paul's confidence was not in his genealogy but rather grounded in his resolute faith in Christ, through whom we receive every bit of righteousness and grace. Jesus is God's own Son, sent amid conspirators and murderers to face death that we may inherit life.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BIBLE STUDY SERIES:

Please join us this morning, as we wrap up our three-week Bible Study called "Parables and Possessions". We are exploring how the Gospel writer Luke deals with economic issues in the two books that he authors, Luke and Acts. The Bible says more about money, economics, and making a living than any other subject. It is clear, therefore, that God puts us in a right relationship with Him so we can, among other things, have a right relationship with money. In this last session we will be taking a look at "The Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus" (Luke 16:19- 31).

Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. Every good gift and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. Of His own will He brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of His creatures. James 1:16-18 ESV.
