Then He said to them, These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled. Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. Luke 24:44-45 ESV

On Sunday, April 14th, please come to Bible Study at 9:15 in the Fellowship Center. We will begin a four-part video Bible study called: "Explaining All The Scary Stuff In Revelation" Nobody said demons, plagues, and an appointment with Armageddon would be fun, but it doesn't have to be feared-at least not for the Christian. Check out our Bible study, "Explaining All The Scary Stuff In Revelation," as it gives both insight-and encouragement to those who follow "the bright Morning Star." In this four-part video study, beginning on Sun. April 14th, Rev. Dr. Ken Klaus (+) explains how Revelation reveals God's divine plan for His creation and has Him fully in control. Though Revelation indicates God's people will endure sufferings it reminds them their victory is final and sure. The text also gives believers the ultimate paradox: death in Jesus is not a disgrace, but the ultimate victory. In this Bible study, you will glean fresh insights into this fascinating book and discover why-even for all its horrendous descriptions and obtuse references, it stands first and foremost as a text of enduring hope and ultimate victory for the Christian.

SUNDAY, APRIL 14, 2024 THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

AS WE GATHER

We are refreshed in the forgiveness of Christ. Through His Word, our sins are blotted out. This is God's love for us – in Christ, we are called children of God. The very wounds of Jesus confirm His grief, His sacrifice, His death foretold by Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms. His resurrected presence with the disciples leaves no room for doubt. Now repentance and the forgiveness of sins may be declared boldly everywhere, in the name of Jesus.
