Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd". John 10:14-16 ESV.

NO BIBLE STUDY TODAY APRIL 21st. Next Sunday April 28th we will continue our four-part video Bible study called: "Explaining All The Scary Stuff In Revelation" at 9:15 AM in the Fellowship Center. Nobody said demons, plagues, and an appointment with Armageddon would be fun, but it doesn't have to be feared—at least not for the Christian. Check out our Bible study, "Explaining All The Scary Stuff In Revelation," as it gives both insight-and encouragement to those who follow "the bright Morning Star." In this four-part video study, beginning on Sun. April 14th, Rev. Dr. Ken Klaus (+) explains how Revelation reveals God's divine plan for His creation and has Him fully in control. Though Revelation indicates God's people will endure sufferings it reminds them their victory is final and sure. The text also gives believers the ultimate paradox: death in Jesus is not a disgrace, but the ultimate victory. In this Bible study, you will glean fresh insights into this fascinating book and discover why—even for all its horrendous descriptions and obtuse references, it stands first and foremost as a text of enduring hope and ultimate victory for the Christian.

SUNDAY, APRIL 21, 2024 FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

AS WE GATHER

The Good Shepherd, Jesus, lays down His life for the sheep. It is Christ alone who has the loving authority to own us, care for us, and redeem us. Christ—crucified by men, resurrected by God—begets healing, life, and salvation. He has done it all for us. Just as Christ acts on our behalf, we, too, are to love one another, not merely by speaking about love but by engaging thoroughly in acts of truth and mercy.
