Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name. John 20:30-31 ESV

SUNDAY, APRIL 7, 2024 SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

AS WE GATHER

Jesus' resurrection shapes believers and doubters. Having defied closed doors, Jesus mysteriously interjects His words, "Peace be with you," to the disciples. So also later, with doubting Thomas, He repeats, "Peace be with you." The resurrected Christ, with maimed hands and side, can beget nothing less than eternal hope, peace, and forgiveness. As we, too, bear witness to Christ's wounds, the Holy Spirit breathes into us a vibrant faith so we confess Jesus to be the resurrected Lord and Savior.

On Sunday, April 14th, please come to Bible Study at 9:15 in the Fellowship Center. We will begin a four-part video Bible study called: "Explaining All The Scary Stuff In Revelation" Nobody said demons, plagues, and an appointment with Armageddon would be fun, but it doesn't have to be feared-at least not for the Christian. Check out our Bible study, "Explaining All The Scary Stuff In Revelation," as it gives both insight-and encouragement to those who follow "the bright Morning Star." In this four-part video study, beginning on Sun. April 14th, Rev. Dr. Ken Klaus (+) explains how Revelation reveals God's divine plan for His creation and has Him fully in control. Though Revelation indicates God's people will endure sufferings it reminds them their victory is final and sure. The text also gives believers the ultimate paradox: death in Jesus is not a disgrace, but the ultimate victory. In this Bible study, you will glean fresh insights into this fascinating book and discover why-even for all its horrendous descriptions and obtuse references, it stands first and foremost as a text of enduring hope and ultimate victory for the Christian.
