

Nurturing Your Faith – Life to the Full!

Happy New Year!
God's blessings to you throughout this exciting year that lies ahead!

2026 is here and that means the sesquicentennial (celebration of 150 years) as a congregation of believers in Christ in Glencoe, Minnesota has officially begun! Thanks be to God!

Throughout this newsletter there is lots of information on ways that we can show thanks to God for His many blessings to us as a family of believers in Him at First Evangelical Lutheran Church. I am really looking forward to participating in the many events that are being planned for us.

Being in God's Word and being in prayer to God are not only essential for maintaining strong faith in Jesus, our Redeemer, but they are also the best ways we can commemorate this special anniversary.

With this in mind, I would like to invite you start this exciting year off in God's Word on Sunday mornings in-between worship services. In the month of January, we will be engaging in a four-week video Bible Study called: Nurturing Your Faith: Life to the Full.

In this series, through a short video followed by exploring God's Word and discussion together, we will pursue the answer to a question that many people have asked themselves:

"How do I know if the life I am living is a life well-lived?"

As we wonder if we're getting the most out of life before it passes us by, we will call to mind this promise of Jesus from John's Gospel: "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full" (John 10:10).

Jan. 4 - Session 1: The Gift of Life

In session one on January 4th, our topic will be: "The Gift of Life". In the short video that we'll watch, Rev. Dr. Travis Scholl reminds us that there is an abundant life available to each of us through faith in Jesus Christ. This life is more than just a series of events on the calendar; it's a quality of life gifted to those who know Jesus as their Lord and Savior.

Jan. 11 - Session 2: How the Sheep Find Home

In session two on January 11th, our topic will be: "How the Sheep Find Home". There are many voices that would "shepherd" us through life if we allow them. But in this session Rev. Scholl shares how there is only One whose voice offers us a peace-filled and abundant life—our loving and faithful Shepherd Jesus Christ.

Jan. 18 - Session 3: The Spirit of Youth

In session three on January 18th, our topic will be: "The Spirit of Youth". The wide-eyed wonder of experiencing life as a child is something to seek even as an adult. In this session we are encouraged to take in all of God's handiwork and revel in our Creator who loves us and saves us.

Jan. 25 - Session 4: To Live Is to Love

On our fourth session on January 25th, our final topic will be: "To Live is to Love". God is love, and in Jesus we have the perfect example of God's love for the world. In Nurturing Your Faith: To Live Is to Love, we learn of the four life-affirming "loves" the Bible speaks of. We are reminded that God's love toward us is transformative, changing hearts by His grace into people who live by faith in Him and love for one another.

I hope you will make time to join us as we explore this great gift of the overflowing, abundant life of God in Nurturing Your Faith: Life to the Full.

*Yours in Christ,
Pastor Dan Welch*

From Assistant Pastor,

Rev. Michael Ewert

1 Peter 3:14-16 14 But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you will be blessed. Have no fear of them, nor be troubled, 15 but in your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, 16 having a good conscience, so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame.

What does this mean?

Reading this question should immediately give you flashbacks of confirmation. Memorizing each part of the Catechism and answering that question. But as we begin to celebrate the 150th Birthday of First Evangelical Lutheran Church I would like to spend time and take a look at what this celebration means.

Too often we run headfirst into matters of life without taking time to slow down and stop. It is now in the heart of winter and snow has piled up so it is as good a time as any to take a minute and examine what it means to be a member of First Evangelical Lutheran Church.

It might be tempting to jump straight to what it means to be a Christian, or specifically a Lutheran. What do I believe, what do I think matters? But this is putting the cart before the horse.

We are tempted in our world today to begin with ourselves. We start with what we think, what we feel, and what we believe. We often echo the idea, "I think, therefore I am," and faith becomes centered on our own thoughts and conclusions. This is Anthropocentric thinking, it is self-centered. It places the self first and treats God as secondary or assumed. It seems subtle, even natural, but too often it causes us to skip over God altogether.

How does the Bible begin? Genesis 1:1, "In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth." And the Gospel of John repeats this, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

What about our Creeds? "I believe in God the Father Almighty." Our Articles of Incorporation explain our purpose: "The purpose of this congregation shall be to seek the honor and glory of God." And then they point to the Book of Concord as the explanation of our faith, and the Book of Concord begins with the three ecumenical creeds, and the First Article of the Augsburg Confession is titled "Concerning God," and speaks of the common faith found in the Creeds.

God is our foundation. St Paul says, "For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ." (1 Cor 3:11) Our faith does not begin with us, but with God. I know it is easy to move past it, to be a Christian means to believe in God, but we sometimes need to slow down and remember that everything needs to begin with God.

So I pray that as we celebrate this 150th year we begin with God's blessing. And as you begin your New Year, God is ever present in all things.

Speaking Christ,
Pr. Michael Ewert

From the DCE Desk...

Take a look at almost any photograph of a Christian church prior to the 1950s/60s and you are bound to notice one thing they will all have in common: head coverings. This month, in honor of our first Heritage Sunday (January 11th, and all 2nd Sundays of the month following) I have decided to use my newsletter article space to draw attention to this “old fashioned” and yet also reemerging tradition of women covering their heads with scarves, mantillas, prayer veils, or hats. What follows is a summary of an article titled “On Headcoverings,” written by Larry Beane and published in Gottesdienst: The Journal of Lutheran Liturgy, on February 27, 2024...you may go there for the entire text.

Women’s Head Coverings in Worship: History, Confession, and Christian Freedom

In recent years, questions about women covering their heads in church have resurfaced, especially within traditional, liturgical congregations. While rarely seen in contemporary worship settings, a small but noticeable number of women in historic Christian churches—Lutheran, Catholic, Orthodox, and others—have begun to reclaim this ancient practice. This is not a uniquely Lutheran phenomenon; it appears across historic congregations and even among some Reformed and Anabaptist groups, where head covering has long been customary.

Historically, women covering their heads in church was nearly universal across Christian denominations until the cultural upheavals of the 1960s. In Roman Catholicism, head coverings were even required by canon law until 1983. The decline of this practice coincided with broader social and sexual revolutions, including explicit protests by feminist organizations such as the National Organization for Women, which rightly understood head coverings to be a confessional symbol rather than mere fashion.

It is therefore unsurprising that head covering has re-emerged today as a countercultural confession—particularly among younger Christians—affirming the goodness of God’s created order in a time of deep confusion about sex, gender, and the body. For some women, covering the head in worship is a meaningful way to express biblical femininity, humility before God, and continuity with the historic Church.

The biblical foundation most often cited is 1 Corinthians 11:2–16, where St. Paul instructs women to cover their heads “in the congregation.”

Christians have long disagreed on how this passage should be applied: some see it as a timeless command, others as culturally bound, others as optional or adiaphora. Notably, this passage is addressed directly in the Lutheran Confessions.

In the Augsburg Confession, Article 28 (“Of Ecclesiastical Power”), Paul’s instruction on head coverings is cited as an example of a churchly ordinance—a regulation established for good order and peace, not a divine law that binds consciences. Pastors and bishops have authority to establish such ordinances so that worship is conducted orderly and without offense, but they may not declare them necessary for salvation or treat their violation as sin. As our Confessions explicitly state, a woman does not sin by going uncovered, provided no offense is given.

This Lutheran distinction is crucial. Head covering is neither commanded nor forbidden as a matter of salvation. It is not law, but a custom that may be encouraged for the sake of love, tranquility, and good order. The same principle applies to other apostolic ordinances, such as worship on Sunday or fasting regulations: they serve the Gospel when they promote peace and clarity, and they undermine it when they burden consciences.

For this reason, the practice should not become divisive. Whether a woman covers her head or not, the Church’s focus remains Christ crucified. Christians are called to leave one another free in such matters, neither despising the practice nor condemning its absence.

In short, from a Lutheran perspective, women’s head coverings in worship are a venerable and meaningful custom—one that some may joyfully embrace, but none should be forced to adopt. Christian freedom, charity, and attention to Christ must prevail.

So, with all that being said, I (Deaconess Megan Polzin) ask you—is this something you want to put into your own worship practices? You absolutely do not have to, but especially since we have this awesome opportunity to revisit long-held traditions during our Heritage Sundays in 2026, now just might be a great time to add in this “laudable custom” as the article stated, and who knows, it may become a permanent practice for your worship! But no matter what you choose, we are thankful for the opportunity to worship alongside one another as a congregational family. May the Lord bless you with discernment and grace during this upcoming year. Amen.

Board of Trustees | December 1st

The Trustees Board had a short meeting. The only topic discussed was the leaky roof which is old news. We will have more informational updates later.

Homegrown! It's a Good Thing!

The 'Farm to School' Department of Agriculture grant monies are used to purchase locally grown and raised foods (beef, pork, poultry, eggs, vegetables, fruits) for our First Lutheran School lunch program.

Our December Homegrown meal was held on Dec 4th. First Lutheran School students enjoyed one of their favorites – Italian Dunkers made with local ground Beef purchased at the Brownston Meat Market and buns from the Pan-o-Gold Bakery in St. Cloud.

Delicata Squash grown in the School Garden were seasoned and baked. (We enjoy eating the skins.)

Additionally, we enjoyed six pans of Apple Crisps which were made using apples given to us by Brenda Birkholz who picked from a Glencoe apple tree.

We look forward to January when we'll be cooking up two meals during Lutheran School week!

As always, students sing the Homegrown song....

*Homegrown's all right with me
Homegrown is the way it should be Homegrown is a good thing
Plant that bell and let it ring*

If you have produce or recipes to share, please reach out to First Lutheran School Secretary Michelle Alsleben at 864-3317 or Program Assistant Becky Ostlie, or Program Coordinator Cindy Eggersgluess at 612-840-6308 or eggersgluesscindy@gmail.com.

January 13 and 27 at 1:30 p. m.

First Evangelical Lutheran Mat-Makers will meet January 13 and 27 at 1:30 p.m. to continue crafting mats for homeless. At this time, the mats are going to the large homeless camp at the edge of Pig's Eye Lake Regional Park near downtown St. Paul and delivered by "New Freedom Store Mission," an official mission of LCMS Minnesota South District.

Did you know that about half of all Americans are only 2 or 3 paychecks from being homeless? Could this be you? Or someone you love? Do you have friends or relatives that would take you in? Many people do not.

Jesus had some very specific things to say about how we are to treat folks who have no home. "Truly I say to you, as you do it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me." Matthew 25:40. "Give to the one who begs from you." Luke 6:30.

God bless you, Mat- Makers, as you serve Him by serving "the least of these my brothers."

We can always use more mat-makers. We'll show you how to do it! It's not hard to learn. (We all learned it!) Drop in any time!

The Humble, Heavenly Banquet January 6, 1:30 p.m.

A great banquet has been prepared by one of society's elite! The upper-crust of the area have all been invited and they are eager to learn WHO the guest of honor will be. What a surprise when Jesus, a humble man who holds no place in the upper social circles, enters!

Read Luke 14:1-24 to see what happens and what Jesus has to say to the "upper class," the prominent Pharisees, attending this banquet. And, what He has to say to us.

Lutheran Women in Mission LWML will meet Monday, January 6 at 1:30 p.m. to study "The Humble, Heavenly Banquet" from At Table with Jesus. If this is a Bible study that interests you, please join us. All women of the congregation are welcome. You don't have to be a member to attend. Devotions will be led by Deaconess Polzin. Only a short business meeting will follow. Refreshments will be served.

Some Bible Verses about Hospitality:

In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: "It is more blessed to give than to receive." ~Acts 20:35

If anyone has material possessions and sees his brother in need but has no pity on him, how can the love of God be in him? ~1 John 3:17

Our desire is not that others might be relieved while you are hard pressed, but that there might be equality. At the present time your plenty will supply what they need so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need. Then there will be equality. ~2 Corinthians 8:13-14

For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me. ~ Matthew 25: 35-36

Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it. ~Hebrews 13:2

"Next Week"

*Reprinted with written permission of the author
Barbara Bressler McKee of New Ulm*

New week, I'll do what I've put off,
Make some changes and have some talks.
Next week, I'll visit a few folks ~
It's been a while since we last spoke.

Next week, I will return phone calls ~
It's just seven days, after all.
Next week, I'll write a few letters
And vow to do my job better.

Next week, I will tackle the mess
That's growing larger, I confess.
Next week, I will start that diet.
And exercise? Maybe I'll try it.

Next week, I'll face my greatest fears ~
The ones I've run from all these years.
Next week, I will give to the poor,
Practice kindness a little more.

Next week, I plan to get around
To setting some bad habits down.
Next week, I will pursue my dreams ~
It can't be as hard as it seems.

Next week, I'll tell all those I love
The three small words that mean so much.
Next week, I'll rely more on God
And receive all His Son's blood bought.

Next week, I won't procrastinate ~
It isn't all that long to wait.
For now, I'll pencil in the date
And hope next week won't be too late.

GIVING TUESDAY 2025 RESULTS

Giving Tuesday - It's a simple idea: whether it's making someone smile, helping a neighbor or stranger out, showing up for an issue or people we care about, or giving some of what we have to those who need our help, every act of generosity counts and everyone has something to contribute toward building the better world we all want to live in.

Thank you to everyone who participated in Giving Tuesday at FL on Dec 2, 2025. About 65 people contributed 192+ hours doing a variety of activities.....cleaning, wiping pews, quilting, participating in Bible Study, donating undies and socks (363 items!) for Orphan Grain Train, decorating for Christmas, Keep It Happening mailing, cutting bread labels, donating cards and postage, writing Christmas cards, sponsoring FLS milk breaks, and ringing the bells for the Salvation Army. The 478 cards were distributed to residents at GlenFields, Orchard Estates, and Grand Meadows as well as McLeod Veterans.

All of this activity is just an example of what happened on one day at FL and it was a wonderful way to "kick off" the Giving Season! Thank you to the Thrivent Action Team program for supplying money to purchase postage for the Christmas cards and refreshments for the volunteers! All through the year, our numerous volunteers log countless hours and help in a multitude of ways.

We thank you!

MARY MARTHA ALTAR GUILD

Are you looking for an opportunity to volunteer at church? The Altar Guild can use your Time, Talent, and Treasures! We encourage and welcome members of the congregation to join the Altar Guild at any time. If you see us working after the worship services, we invite you to join us and see what we are up to.

Our motto of service has remained the same for 70+ years: "Let all things be done decently and in order." 1 Corinthians 14:40 We prepare the altar, set up for Communion and Baptisms for our church services, and occasionally decorate the church for holidays.

We will provide training; no special talents required ~ just a willingness to share your Time, Talent, and Treasures. You work one month out of the year with 2 other members. We meet as a group four times between Sept. and May (Sept., Nov. or Dec., Jan., and May).

If you are interested or have questions, please contact Charleen Engelmann, or leave a message with the church office.

Our Mission

Help us spread the Gospel message in the KGLB Radio listening area. The KGLB Radio Lutheran Hour broadcast is a congregational outreach ministry supporting congregations of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod in the KGLB listening area by inviting listeners (at the end of each broadcast) to attend a "Church of the Lutheran Hour" in their area. It is independently funded by generous Christians, church groups and congregations who want to spread the pure and powerful message of the Savior's love in their communities.

The Great Commission

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Matthew 28:18-20 ESV

The 137th Tournament of Roses Parade will take place on Thursday, January 1, 2026, in Pasadena, California, under the theme of "The Magic in Teamwork." This will be LHM's 75th time entering the new year with a Christian message of hope in Jesus Christ in the form of a floral Rose Parade float.

This year's float features a Team Jesus blimp flying over the world and coming forth from the church as Jesus celebrates with 12 modern-day disciples as it features the message ALL WELCOME. "Team Jesus" serves as a reminder that it takes all to fulfill the callings Christ has placed upon us to do the work of bringing Christ and His redeeming love to the world.

Symbolism includes a Luther Seal on the nose of the blimp and 75 on the tail for the 75th year of having a Lutheran float in the parade. The Petal Pushers banner is shown to represent the annual volunteer efforts of 3,500+ individuals.

As a self-funded project of the Southern California District of the Lutheran Laymen's League, the LHM float is the only Christian float in the annual parade. The float carries on a mission to provide a Gospel witness to the millions of parade viewers watching in person at the parade in Pasadena, on TV and the computer.

If you're interested in volunteering to help with the production of the float, please visit petalpushers.org!

And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up.

Galatians 6:9 ESV

congregation in Prayer

ALL MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF FIRST EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH ARE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS VALUABLE HABIT AS A CELEBRATORY ACTIVITY!

EACH WEEK DAY WE ARE ENCOURAGING MEMBERS AND FRIENDS TO JOIN TOGETHER AT 1:50 PM FOR A MOMENT OF PRAYER. ALTHOUGH WE ARE ALL FREE TO CONVERSE WITH GOD OVER ANY MATTER, A CALENDAR/LIST WILL BE PROVIDED MONTHLY SO EVERYONE CAN FEEL COMFORTABLE KNOWING WHAT TO PRAY FOR IF THEY DON'T HAVE SOMETHING PERSONAL.

when:

AT 1:50 PM EACH WEEK DAY (IF YOU WISH TO CONTINUE THIS PRACTICE ON THE WEEKENDS YOU ARE OBVIOUSLY FREE TO DO SO, BUT WE WILL FOCUS ON THE WEEKDAYS TOGETHER AS A CONGREGATION).

THIS IS THE BEST PART ABOUT PRAYER--WE CAN DO IT WHEREVER WE ARE. WE CAN PRAY AUDIBLY OR QUIETLY IN OUR HEARTS. SO WHEREVER YOU FIND YOURSELF IS PERFECT!

why:

BECAUSE GOD LOVES US SO DEEPLY AND WANTS US, EVEN COMMANDS US, TO PRAY. IN OUR BUSY LIVES WE FREQUENTLY DON'T TAKE THE TIME TO BE IN A PERSONAL CONVERSATIONAL RELATIONSHIP WITH OUR CREATOR/SAVIOR. BY PARTICIPATING IN THIS TIMED PRAYER, WE WILL CREATE A HABIT OF PRAYER AND REJOICE TOGETHER AS A CONGREGATION THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE YEAR.

MAKE SURE YOU GRAB A 150TH ANNIVERSARY CALENDAR EACH MONTH IN 2026. CONTAINED ON THAT DOCUMENT ARE PRAYERS FOR EACH DAY OF THE MONTH. IF YOU CHOOSE TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS ACTIVITY, YOU ARE FREE TO PRAY FOR ANYTHING YOU WISH, OR TO USE THE PROVIDED PROMPTS. WE ALSO RECOMMEND THAT, IF YOU ARE ABLE, YOU SET AN "ALARM" TO GO OFF AT 1:50PM TO HELP REMIND YOU TO PARTICIPATE!

WITH OUR 150TH THEME VERSE ON THE BACK, OUR SPECIAL 150TH LOGO ON THE FRONT, AND BOLD COLOR CHOICES, COMMUNITY MEMBERS ARE GUARANTEED TO NOTICE WHEN THESE ARE SEEN OUT AND ABOUT!

Happy 150th Anniversary! It's 2026 – a year to reflect on our history and heritage, celebrate God's abundant blessings, and recommit ourselves to our mission of sharing Christ and changing lives. Our theme for this special year is Hebrews 10:22–24, with the tagline Worship • Community • Confession.

Throughout 2026, we will commemorate this anniversary in many meaningful ways. Here are a few ways:

- Continuous Bible Reading: Beginning at 12:01 AM on January 1, we will embark on a continuous reading of the entire Bible—and we need you to participate! The sign up can be accessed online or by phoning the Church office. We invite congregants, friends, and community members to read, or to simply stop by to listen and reflect - an ad was placed in the Dec 19th Chronicle and mentioned on Glencoe Talk (KGLB 1310 AM Radio)
- 150 Bell Rings: Worship will open with 150 joyful bell rings on Sunday, January 4th! We will rejoice again with 150 rings for our Anniversary Service on July 12th and close the year with 150 rings on the last Sunday of the year. On Jan 4th, we'll be sharing a video showcasing our bell!
- Shine the Light: The Church Steeple windows will once again be illuminated at night!
- Monthly "150th" Calendars: Have you picked up your January calendar page? Make sure to get one each and every month. Each month features a historical photo, highlighted service activities, daily prayers, significant historical moments, and other events.
- Congregation in Prayer: Each weekday at 1:50 p.m. (in honor of our 150th year), we invite you to pause wherever you are and join fellow members and friends in prayer. Short prayers are shared on the monthly calendar handout.
- 150+ Service & Fellowship Activities: We've compiled more than 150 opportunities for the year ahead! Two new activities – crocheting/knitting hats for newborns and hand-crafting little crosses. All crafters are welcome!
- Heritage Sundays: On the second Sunday of each month, we will hold a Divine Service featuring various elements of our Lutheran heritage: historic liturgies, hymns, and treasured traditions from our past. Vintage collection plates will be used, and attendees are encouraged to dress in old-fashioned attire. We have heard that in the past, men (right) and women (left) sat apart at services – you are welcome to participate in this tradition if you'd like! January 11th will be our first Heritage Sunday! Join at fellowship time and enjoy refreshments from the 150th Committee.
- Full Church Photo – Come to the Jan 25th 10:30 Service to be part of our photo!
- Special Anniversary T-Shirts are available for purchase ($15)– we are excited to see our members wearing them out and about in the community! Please pick yours up soon!
- Church Pictorial Directory and Historical Recap (1876–2026) will feature both member photos and a rich collection of historical information. This combined directory/historical book is planned for publication by early summer.
- Look for a special historical display to be unveiled during the Pancake & Sausage Meal on Sunday, March 22.
- Planning has begun for a First Lutheran Cemetery Tour (The Silent Stories Tour) on May 17.
- Mark your calendars for our Anniversary Service on Sunday, July 12, 2026, a day for your whole family to attend and celebrate together.
- Mark your calendars for a Red Cross Blood Drive on October 9

Can you help? There is a display case in the Glencoe Community Center (west end) that will showcase First Ev. Lutheran Church & School during the 2nd Quarter of 2026. We need assistance in planning and setting up this wonderful way to feature FL and our 150 years of history in the Glencoe community! Please contact the Church office or Cindy E!

These are only some of the events planned as we honor 150 years of God's faithfulness. Please stay tuned, pray for our preparations, and consider how you might participate.

Ideas and questions may be directed to the 150th Anniversary Committee Co-Chairs, Cindy Eggersgluess and Dennis Wolter.

Chapel Offerings

During the second trimester our chapel offerings will be going to missionaries in Mongolia. This is part of a program called "Gospel Adventures" that LCMS organizes for students. During National Lutheran Schools Week our students will be learning about "Mongolia" and the work that God is doing there. We will look into the day-to-day lives of people like us in Mongolia through music, videos, and fun characters with Gospel Adventures.

At the end of January, First Lutheran will celebrate National Lutheran Schools Week. This is a fun and special week as we celebrate our Lutheran School, as well as the LCMS Schools around the world. In 2025 there were 1,985 LCMS schools, with 163,869 students who were enrolled in a LCMS school, early childhood-high school, and more than 21,000 teachers! What a blessing it is to serve at a Lutheran School where we get to share the Good News of our Savior to those we serve. Thank you for all of your donations that you make to keep our church and school connected!

School closings and late starts are carried on KDUZ, KARP, and WCCO radio stations and on television stations WCCO (4), and KARE (11). First Lutheran follows the Glencoe-Silver Lake Schools for all weather closings. Parents should use their own best judgment on travel safety during poor weather conditions. If the announced time is 12:00, First Lutheran dismisses at 11:50. On mornings with late starts, scheduled classes (band, chapel, etc.) that meet before 10:10 are canceled for the day. You may dial 320-864-2499 (1) for cancellation or postponement of the Glencoe-Silver Lake School District. Parents should have a plan devised in advance with their children on what to do when school is dismissed early due to weather.

Pep Rally Fun

Student Council put on a fun afternoon with snowball fights and snow man wraps for all grades.
