Divine Service: Setting 1, Page 151

AS WE GATHER While the wisdom of this world promotes prosperity, Jesus teaches humility. Those characteristics that the world looks down on, God calls blessed. While we might be persecuted for these things, God reminds us that ore reward is in heaven. For what might seem wise to the world is truly foolish, and what seems foolish to the world—Christ crucified—is wise. Just as He redeemed the Israelites and calls them His people, so also has He rescues us from our sins.

SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Session 4: To Live Is to Love

Our final topic is: "To Live is to Love". God is love, and in Jesus we have the perfect example of God's love for the world. In Nurturing Your Faith: To Live Is to Love, we learn of the four life-affirming "loves" the Bible speaks of. We are reminded that God's love toward us is transformative, changing hearts by His grace into people who live by faith in Him and love for one another.

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

FEBRUARY 1 – FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

1 Corinthians 1:20 – "Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?" God's ways are certainly not the world's ways, including the way God tells us to manage the resources He's given to us. The world says, "hold on, hold back and gather up." Jesus says to store up treasure in heaven where moth and rust do not destroy and where no thief breaks in to steal. Whose way do you think is best? What is wiser: the wisdom of the financial gurus or the foolishness of God?
